

(ASSISTANT) CNC MILLING MACHINE

Are you flexible and willing to make the best possible use of the CNC Machines with your colleagues?

WHAT WILL YOU DO AS A CNC MILLER AT TABB?

You will independently manufacture - parts of - products made of metals, plastics and wood through machining operations performed with the CNC milling machines.

AS (ASSISTANT) CNC MILLER WITHIN TABB YOU WILL :

The text in italics applies only to the experienced milling operator, not the assistant.*

- Read and interpret assignments, convert working drawings to auxiliary drawings in Vectorcam and Camworks
- Span products on the CNC milling machine.
- Operate the CNC milling machine.
- Write new CNC programmes.
- Be recalling and/or modifying existing CNC programmes.
- Maintain (preventively) the CNC milling machine and tools, order parts.
- Provide input for milling planning.
- Check and measure milled products.
- Be post-processing products
- Innovate and apply technological developments to carry out production as efficiently and effectively as possible.

WHAT DO YOU BRING :

- Minimum MBO working and thinking level (technical education) minimum 2 years' demonstrable experience as a CNC milling machine.
- Affinity with interior design, mechanical engineering or metal and/or good technical insight
- Good command of the programme Vectorcam
- Experience with 3-axis milling is a must, experience with 5-axis milling is a plus
- The following competences ; Independent, Flexible, All-round professionalism, Willingness to learn, Accuracy, Quality awareness, Innovative, Disciplined

WHERE DO YOU END UP?

You will join a team of ambitious and skilled colleagues. As a CNC milling machine operator, you will work in a hectic, challenging and informal working environment in which you will have the opportunity to use your knowledge to the full and expand your expertise. Great value is attached to collegiality, commitment and enthusiasm within our open and direct culture.

WHAT DO WE OFFER YOU?

- A challenging job within an innovative growing organisation
- An excellent and competitive salary, depending on your education and experience
- A committed employer with excellent conditions, such as work clothes and protective equipment, a good company pension scheme and career opportunities.